VILLAGES AT MT. HOOD
TOWN HALL MEETING

Town Hall Minutes
October 23, 2010

Chair Doug Saldivar called the October Town Hall meeting of the Villages at Mount Hood to order at 9:40 am at the Welches Elementary School in Welches, OR.

Attendance:

- ❖ Committee Members Present: Shirley Dueber, Bob Reeves, Doug Saldivar, Pat Sharp, George Wilson
- ❖ Excused: Pat Buckley
- ❖ Absent:
- ❖ Staff Present: Christine Roth (County Liaison), Kate Roth (Recording Secretary)

Town Hall Introduction and Announcements:

Chair Doug Saldivar welcomed all the attendees and introduced the Board. He also thanked the candidates for coming, and said he was pleased by the turnout.

Bob Reeves presented the details of the forum and the format of the forum.

Lieutenant Paul Stiegleder from the Clackamas County Sheriff's Office spoke briefly, and announced that he would be the new liaison between the Sheriff's Office and the Villages. He also said that there is 24/7 coverage on the mountain area, and he would also like to work on preventative enforcement.

Greg Kord, Constitutional Party candidate for Oregon Governor, spoke briefly and thanked the Villages for the option to speak.

Candidates Forum:

Bob Reeves introduced moderator Christine Chin Ryan, and asked her to explain the format. First to speak were the County Clerk candidates: Melody Thompson and Sherry Hall, as well as County Treasurer Shari Anderson. The next set of candidates featured the candidates for State Representative, Mark Johnson and Suzanne Van Orman. Following them were the candidates for State Senate, Chuck Thomsen. Last were the Board of County Commissioner candidates. Candidates for position two are Bob Austin and Paul Savas. Candidates for position three were Ann Lininger and Jim Needham.

Christine Chin Ryan reminded attendees that it was too late to mail in ballots, so ballots need to be dropped off an official return site. She also thanked the Board and the timekeeper.
