Residents in the Villages at Mt Hood are electing three members to the Board of Directors. The village is advisory to the Board of County Commissioners. The boundary consists of the Mt Hood and Rhododendron Community Planning Organizations.

Village Directors must live or own property or a business in the village area, be willing to volunteer time to work on projects, help represent the area and fulfill responsibilities as described in the bylaws. The Board of County Commissioners will review the list of candidates in advance of the town hall to ensure candidates meet the residency, property or business ownership requirements.

Directors will be chosen at the May 22, 2010 Town Hall meeting.

I believe in Clackamas County's Complete Communities' vision. We must have a board in place that will work honestly and diligently to develop community goals and sell those ideas to the County Commissioners. Our ideas don't have to be popular with Clackamas County... but they must be well thought out and articulated to confidently share the community's needs and concerns with our County's key decision makers. I am not afraid to have honest, forthright discussions with county directorates. Directors must motivate the community. We can no longer have a board of directors that cannot muster more than 30 or 40 votes to get them elected. We need a board that isn't sitting on their hands constantly studying issues...rather, we need those that encourage and participate in healthy debate, outline solutions, act fearlessly in problem solving, and finally stand behind the community's decisions. I will represent you...not some personal, special interest
